Adult assembly required.

This item contains small parts that have sharp points and sharp edges in the unassembled state. Please keep away from children.

Adults must be extra careful to securely tighten all screws, make sure the product is properly assembled, and ensure there are no left-over parts (e.g. Allen Wrench) within the reach of children.

Some items require a tipping restraint and must be installed prior to using the product. If a tipping restraint is required, we will include one and the installation of the tipping restraint will be noted in the assembly instructions.
